

I found hard and soft materials and organised them.

I collected objects and put them into shape groups. I found circles, squares, rectangles and a few triangles.

I made a bed for my snow leopard from the soft materials.

I used my little numberblocks to make up different ways to add up to ten.

I made a home for my little tiger. It is made of soft pomp oms for him to rest on..